

Statement about the originality of scientific publications and a single transfer of copyright of publication issued in Conference Proceedings

SYSTEMS SUPPORTING PRODUCTION ENGINEERING

Bearing in mind the reliability of scientific publications and counteracting such phenomena as: ghostwriting<sup>1</sup> and guest authorship<sup>2</sup>, the Editorial Staff of Conference Proceedings “Systems Supporting Production Engineering” requests the Author/Authors of the article to provide the below information.

At the same time the Editorial Staff informs that any revealed cases of scientific unreliability will be recorded and relevant subjects will be notified.

Author/Authors:.....

Affiliation of Author/Authors:
.....

Title of publication: .....
.....

The Author/Authors of the article inform that:

The author of the concept, assumptions, methods of the publication is (please, specify the percentage participation of particular authors or point to the authors of particular fragments of the article):

.....
.....

Specify the source of the publication financing, including the contribution of a research institution, association or another subject engaged in the issue of the article:

.....
.....

The Author provides a publisher that the article is the result of work of their own and in no way infringe the copyright of third parties.

The Author provides a Publisher that the article contains an unpublished research results.

The Author agrees to release the publication in the Conference Proceedings “Systems Supporting Production Engineering” without payment of the author’s royalty (single transfer of copyright), on the following fields of exploitation:

- recording,
- reproduction in printed form,
- placing the copies on the market,
- using the work for advertising or promotional purposes.

The Editorial staff decides about:

- frame, form, graphic design,
- price of the copies of the work,
- number of copies.

.....
(citi, date)

.....
(Author/Authors signature)

<sup>1</sup> The author’s/authors’ concealment of the information on a considerable contribution of a third party in the event the latter has made a considerable contribution in the publication or failure to thank this person for her assistance in the writing of the published article.

<sup>2</sup> Takes place when despite the fact that the author participated only to a very little extent or did not participate in the publication at all, he/she is quoted as its author/co-author.